JUDGMENT AND PROBATION/COMMITMENT ORDER:

The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: 8 months, with 4 months to be spent in custody and 4 months to be spent in a community corrections center. Upon release from imprisonment, he shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years on the conditions that he comply with the rules and regulations of the Probation Office and General Order 318; and that he pay any unpaid portion of the special assessment as directed by the Probation Officer. Pursuant to Section 5E1.2(e) of the Guidelines, all fines are waived, including the costs of imprisonment and supervision as it is found the defendant does not have the ability to pay. The defendant is Ordered to pay a special assessment of $100.

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant is to surrender himself to the facility designated by the Bureau of Prisons by noon on June 19, 1999. The defendant's bond is exonerated upon his surrender.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the standard conditions of Probation and Supervised Release set out on the reverse side of this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

_____ This is a direct commitment to the Bureau of Prisons, and the Court has NO OBJECTION should the Bureau of Prisons designate defendant to a Community Corrections Center.
